

"I would be in my grave but for Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy"
I could not walk across the house and the doctors I had told my husband I had consumption. A lady told me to try

Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy
I sent and got $5.00 worth and I got better. I weighed 115 pounds. I now weigh 180, and I owe my health to Dr. Miles' Remedies.

Mrs. Fred Wiltse, R. F. D. No. 13, Allen, Mich.
Most people who use Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy have the same experience Mrs. Wiltse had, they get better. A medicine that enables a weak heart to regain lost strength without depressing effects is the best to use.

The first bottle is guaranteed to benefit or your druggist gives back the price.

SCIATRA'S PIERCING PAIN.

To kill the nerve pains of Sciatica you can always depend on Sloan's Liniment. It penetrates to the seat of pain and brings ease as soon as applied. A great comfort too with Sloan's is that no rubbing is required. Sloan's Liniment is invaluable for stopping muscular or nerve pain of any kind. Try it at once if you suffer with rheumatism, lumbago, sore throat, pain in chest, sprains, bruises, etc. It is excellent for neuralgia and headache. 25c. at all druggists. 3.

Mrs. W. M. Hughes and children left on the early train Sunday morning for Lenoir City. They were accompanied by Mrs. Hughes' sister, Miss Estelle Hyder.

The Boy Scouts met in their room at the city school building Friday night for a "wee-wee feast." Each boy had invited a friend, making a total of boys present of close to thirty. Scout Master Rev. M. A. Martin was present and presided over the meeting. Several citizens of the town were present and gave brief talks of encouragement to the boys. It has been arranged that Rev. W. C. Martin, of the M. E. church, act as Scout Master and Rev. M. A. Martin will act as assistant. The Boy Scout movement here is growing in favor as the boys have been conducting themselves in a way to win respect of the public. With the coming of warmer weather the boys will be taken on several hikes that will prove very pleasant.

Friday night of last week Mrs. Belle Knowles entertained a few friends at cards at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Webb. A delightful evening was spent, after which delicious refreshments were served.

Scott, the five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Q. Wyatt accidentally cut off the little finger of his right hand yesterday forenoon, with a lawn mower. As the finger was hanging only by a piece of skin it is probable it will not be saved.

Don't fail to see "The Running Fight," featuring Violet Heming, at the Mecca tomorrow night.

The Art Circle will meet with Mrs. S. C. Bishop this week.

To the good people of Crossville:—I should indeed be very ungrateful if I did not acknowledge the spontaneous assistance rendered to me during this sickness and for the very many Christmas gifts of fruits and dainties, for all of which I feel grateful and can only say, "May God's richest blessings be the portion of each and every one." E. S. Cram.

At the Chronicle office you can get pen tablets, examination tablets, fountain pen ink in five and ten cent bottles, pocket note books, stenographer's note books, Crane's fine stationery in two-quire boxes and other stationery such as you do not find elsewhere in this county.

Some of our correspondents insert items in their news making inquiry for certain things or offer certain things for sale. Such matter is not news, it is business, and must be paid for before being published. The Chronicle cannot give space to such matter free of charge.

Mrs. Belle Knowles returned to her home in Chattanooga Saturday, after a visit of some days here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Webb.

I handle buggies, wagons, fence wire, pianos, organs, sewing machines, and a general line of merchandise at best prices and the easiest terms. My goods must and do give satisfaction. Chas. W. Spencer, Creston. 12-1-11.

In response to the petition of friends and in the interest of republican harmony W. M. Stone has decided to withdraw from the race for the nomination for Tax Assessor and he wishes the public to understand that he is no longer a candidate.

E. S. Cram, who sustained a serious physical breakdown some weeks ago, had a relapse Saturday and is now in a very critical condition. He has grown so weak from his protracted sickness and his burden of years that slight hope is now entertained for his final recovery. He is receiving every attention that love and the kindness of neighbors can give, but he is gradually growing weaker and the end seems not far distant.

If you have not paid your subscription to the Chronicle why not do it NOW and at the same time take advantage of the big combination offer we are making. You can supply yourself and family with good reading for a whole year and save 95 cents over any other way of getting the same good reading.

In this issue George McIntosh announces as a candidate for Sheriff subject to the republican primary to be held March 25. Our information touching Mr. McIntosh is so limited that we do not feel competent to speak of his qualifications for the office. For that reason we are forced to leave that to Mr. McIntosh during the coming canvass.

Albert Pickett and family moved from Creston to Crossville Monday and are occupying the Rio residence on Sparta Avenue.

The Crossville Band is arranging for a minstrel and band entertainment January 14. A splendid program has been prepared and the occasion promises to be a rare treat to those who enjoy good band music. The entertainment will be given in the court house at night and should, and doubtless will, bring out a goodly crowd. It will be under the direction of Prof. F. G. Walton, band master, and will not only prove very entertaining but will show the marked proficiency that the band has attained to under their able instructor. The enterprise should have the hearty support of all our people for the proceeds are to go to defray expenses of the band and the purchase of other instruments.

WANTED—Fifty tie-makers at once by the Dayton Tie Company, Dayton, Tennessee. 12-29-41.

In this issue we are publishing a large advertisement of a Jubbing proposition which should interest many Chronicle readers. It means a saving of 95 cents as against any other way you can get these publications. The most interesting feature of the deal is that each clubbing offer enables you to get the Chronicle at a price less than the regular subscription rate. Look the ad over carefully and select such combinations as you wish.

Can that grouch and wear a smile.

Plenty of small single entry ledgers at the Chronicle office; 180 pages only 30 cents.

The board of mayor and aldermen met Friday night in the office of Recorder O. B. Rector. They took the oath of office, transacted some routine business, but did not elect either a marshal or recorder for the ensuing year. Recorder O. B. Rector notified the board not to consider him as a candidate for recorder. The board adjourned to meet Friday night to elect a recorder and marshal.

The first two episodes of the "Exploits of Elaine," begin in this issue. Read it. Next week the story will catch up with the movie show at the Mecca and you can see it there after reading it in the Chronicle.

If you have a watch or a piece of jewelry that needs fixing, bring it to Bishop at the Chronicle office and he will send it to J. H. Wilson, who will fix it right at a right price and return it. Then you can pay when it is returned.

In this issue John A. Hassler announces as a candidate for sheriff. Four years ago he made the race and stood second. That leads him to feel that he can do a little better this time and come under the wire at least a nose ahead of Sheriff Toney. Mr. Hassler is fully as well known or better known to many voters over the county than to the editor of the Chronicle. We are informed that he is a strictly sober man, not addicted to intoxicants in any form. Just what special claims he may have on the votes of the people we do not know, but presume he will make it his special work in the campaign to present his case to the people as strongly as he is able.

E. Kirkpatrick has bought a farm near Portland, Tennessee, and he and family expect to move there possibly by the first of next month, but not later than March 1. W. H. Kirkpatrick will likely go on the road for a while soon after they move. Our people will regret very much to see the Kirkpatricks move away as they have shown themselves to be people of intelligence, refinement and most excellent citizens. All will join in wishing them a pleasant and prosperous home wherever they may live.

County court adjourned at noon yesterday, but for want of time to prepare it and the further fact that the clerk had not written up the minutes of the proceedings, we are unable to give the court proceedings this week, but will do so next week.

Qualls will have a crusher in a few days in his feed store. His man, Mr. Fiscus, will crush your ear corn, with or without shuck.

Go to Qualls' feed store for your corn, hay, bran, shorts, flour, home-ground and bolted meal, etc. He keeps a man there ready to wait on you and grind your corn Wednesdays and Saturdays.

Bibbey & Phillips and Reed & Burnett have perfected a deal whereby Bibbey & Phillips will take over the heavy hardware stock of Reed & Burnett and they will cease to handle that class of goods in the future. Bibbey & Phillips will cease to handle held seeds. This is one step in the right direction, that of confining the business to a certain line and each man handle his line only. Such a course enables each merchant to handle a more complete stock in his line and thus give the public better service than can be done with a general stock.

The Art Circle Library is now in Mrs. DeGoh's building. Open on Tuesdays and Saturdays from 2:30 until 4:30 p. m.

If you want score cards and pencils, paper napkins, nice writing paper cut to special size come to the Chronicle office for them.
